Unified Canva Pro Access

- A unified Canva team has been set up to provide free access to Canva Pro for every lodge in the section.
- This shared resource helps to support your lodge's communications including social media, publications, videos, etc.
- If your lodge pays for Canva, save the expense, otherwise now is a great time to start taking advantage of Canva!
- If you have not already filled out the form to get access, please do so.

New Section Communications Committee

- A new section communications committee is currently in the works of exploring ways to strengthen digital outreach.
- Arrowmen would be needed to help manage the website and social media platforms.
- Each area would have a designated lead, with the option to form a small support team (i.e. web team, social media team).
