

Section E5 Best All-Around Lodge Competition Rules

Description: The Best All-Around Lodge Competition will bring the Lodge Chiefs of Section E5 together to present their Lodge's overall performance since the previous Section Conference.

Presentation: Each Lodge Chief will be given 20 minutes to present all material that he or she has prepared. Presentations should include both quantitative and qualitative information that appropriately represents their Lodge. PowerPoint presentations are recommended. Additional documents may be distributed to Lodge Chiefs by the presenter. A final copy of all presentation materials and documents must be submitted to the Section Chief prior to Section Conference in order to be used in the competition.

Scoring: After the presentation period, there will be a 5-minute period where the Lodge Chiefs can ask questions about the presentation; following the period for questioning, Lodge Chiefs will score the presentation. Any time period may be amended at the discretion of the Section Chief.
